

William Royalston MORRIS	Portion	Section	Grave
	29A	46	16

William Roy Morris was born in Queensland to William George Morris and Florence Elizabeth Christina (née Klinge) on 08 January 1901. Thirty-six year old Roy, of George Street, Brisbane, who was employed on main road works, died in the Brisbane General Hospital about 11:20am on 05 May 1937, following a traffic accident on the Brisbane-Ipswich Road at Wacol the previous day.

3292 Edward Amos BUDD	Portion	Section	Grave
	29A	46	17

Edward Amos Budd was born to Edward Nelson Budd and Fanny (née Crisp), in Allora, Queensland on 20 August 1893. Amy Millicent Knox married Edward in Brisbane on 03 October 1914.

Ned, of Newmarket Road, Windsor, was an Engine Driver when he enlisted in the AIF on 22 January 1917. Private Budd, assigned to the 27/5 Light Horse Regiment, was discharged in May 1919. A Brisbane City Council employee, Ned died instantly in a head on collision between his motorcycle and a car on the Pacific Highway, Beenleigh, on 17 January 1937.

Norman James ROYLE	Portion	Section	Grave
	29A	46	4

Norman James Royle was born in Queensland to Ernest Alfred Milton Royle and Elizabeth Theresa (née Byrom) on 14 January 1914. Norman resided at 55 Enoggera Terrace, Red Hill and was employed as a painter by Mr Hanscombe, a Paddington sign writer, Aged 22 years, Norman died in the Brisbane Hospital at 2:15pm on 12 January 1937 following an accident on his bicycle at 7:50am that morning

Ernest GREENFIELD	Portion	Section	Grave
	29A	67	5/6

Ernest was born to William Henry Greenfield and Ada Harriet (née Brown) in the Paddington District, NSW on 16 December 1883.

Ernest worked for Greenfield Bros, opticians. After boarding the ss Yongala in Mackay for Townsville, Ernest was aboard when they left Mackay at 1:40pm on 23 March 1911. The final sighting of the ss Yongala was by the Dent Island lighthouse keeper at 6:30pm that same day. All hands were believed lost during a cyclone.

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Taken Before Their Time Friends of Toowong Cemetery

Broken column symbolisation on gravestone of Robert McMullin
5(89)1/2

Valentine Edward SPENDELOVE	Portion	Section	Grave
	2A	10	21/22

Valentine Edward Spendelove, the eldest son of Benjamin Spendelove and Ann (née Rowe), was born on the 14 February 1854 in Lutterworth, Leicestershire. Priscilla Shipley married Valentine, a carter, on 25 December 1876 in Walsall, Staffordshire. They had six children, including three born in Queensland. The extended family arrived in Brisbane on 08 April 1885, aboard the Merkara. Valentine, a resident of Deighton Street, Dutton Park, died just after 10pm on 01 June 1904 at his work, the Eureka Sanitary Works, Boggo Road, South Brisbane.

Frances Emma IRVING	Portion	Section	Grave
	2A	28	19

Frances Emma Irving was born in Queensland on 12 December 1883 to Maxwell Henry Williatt Irving and Mary Jane (née Gielis). Work as a schoolteacher, transferred Fanny from Ayr State School to Ravenswood State School in May 1906. Another transfer in March 1910 moved Fanny to Harlaxton State School, Toowoomba.

On 07 January 1920 at about 10:30am, Fanny, aged 36 years, drowned at Sutton's Beach, Redcliffe.

Thomas John MANNION	Portion	Section	Grave
	2A	28	28/29/30

Thomas John Mannion was born in Brisbane on 25 April 1873 to George Mannion and Deborah (née Hodgings).

Thomas died on Friday 21 December 1894 at Mooloolah, while tree driving.

Andrew John DARK	Portion	Section	Grave
	5	40	17/18

Andrew John Dark and Emily (née Leffen) were the parents of Andrew John Dark, who was born in July 1880 at St Olave Bermondsey, London. The family arrived in Brisbane from London aboard the Dorunda on 21 October 1884.

Andrew drowned in the Roxana disaster on 26 December 1901, aged 21 years & 6 months.

Robert MCMULLIN	Portion	Section	Grave
	5	89	1/2

A son of Andrew McMullin and Jane (née Johnston), Robert was born circa 1877 in Ballyconnell, County Cavan, Ireland. Bertha Mary Louise Winsch married Robert at Cedar Creek, Queensland on 29 December 1903. They had three children. Robert died on 15 July 1907 following a fall from a milk cart in Musgrave Road, Red Hill.

Walter JONES	Portion	Section	Grave
	5	121	13

Walter Jones was born in London circa 1888. Walter was an able seaman aboard the Aberdeen liner, ss Themistocles. The liner arrived from London on Saturday 22 March 1913. Walter drowned while bathing in the Brisbane River at Bulimba at 2pm on Sunday 23 March 1913, aged 24 years. Walter's body was retrieved about 7am two days later.

Sidney Arthur KENNOCH	Portion	Section	Grave
	29	8	6/7

Sidney Arthur Kennoch, a son of John Henry Kennoch and Elizabeth (Lizzie) France (née Nicholson), was born in Queensland on 26 August 1913.

Sid, of Qualtrough Street, Woolloongabba, died in the Brisbane Hospital at 10:45pm 05 November 1931, aged 18 years from an accident while preparing to commemorate Guy Fawkes Night.

Jean & Marjorie OSBORNE	Portion	Section	Grave
	29	28	15/16

Daughters of Robert Francis Osborne and Martha (née Orth), Jean was born about 1824 and Marjorie was born about 1827. The girls, of Gaythorne Road, Gaythorne, died at the old Virginia Brickworks, Pickering Street, Enoggera, about 10:30am on Thursday 02 January 1936.

John HEYWOOD	Portion	Section	Grave
	29	30	1

John Heywood, born in Brisbane on 07 April 1891, was a son of Edward Heywood and Sarah (née Colley). Julia Kelly married John in Brisbane on 11 March 1916. They had three Brisbane born children. John, a builder and contractor, who resided in Primrose Street, Newmarket, died from an accident at the Crown Stove and Foundry Company, Sackville Street, Holland Park on 14 November 1934.

