

donated land in Curlew Street Toowong overlooking the Burns Road cutting, for the first Church of St Thomas the Apostle, and was one of its original trustees.

| WILLIAM ATWELL | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|----------------|---------|---------|--------------|
|                | 5       | 38      | 17           |

William Atwell (1843-1913) began work as an excavator in railway construction in England and came to Queensland to work for the contractor constructing the railway line over the Main Range to Toowoomba. He joined the Queensland Railways Department in 1867 and eventually rose to the position of Chief Inspector of Railways.

Sources

'BDM Queensland Index Search', The State of Queensland (Department of Justice and Attorney-General), 2015

Trove, Digitised Newspapers and More (2015)

<http://www.sclqld.org.au/judicial-papers/judicial-profiles/profiles/hhhenchman>

Who's Who in Australia, 1921-1950

<http://archival-classic.sl.nsw.gov.au/item/itemDetailPaged.aspx?itemID=886767>

http://www.brisbanehistory.com/brisbane\_lawyers.html

American Civil War Round Table Queensland

<http://www.sampfordarundel.org.uk/sampage60.php>

A Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc Guided Heritage Walk

"A RAMBLE THROUGH PORTION 5" part II

George Rogers Harding

| DANIEL GEORGE BLOOMFIELD | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|---------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                                 | 5              | 101            | 11                  |

Daniel Bloomfield (1858-1915) was, for many years, a well known bandmaster and popular cornet soloist in Brisbane. His career in music began at the age of ten as a drummer in the Royal Marines in England. He settled in Brisbane in 1883 and soon became deeply involved in the local music scene as a performer and conducting various local bands, including the Naval Brigade Band, for many years.

| THE HON. HERWARD HUMFRY HENCHMAN | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|---|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|   | 5              | 101            | 18/19               |

The Hon. H.H. Henschman (1874-1939), barrister and Judge, was the third son of William Henschman, a foundry proprietor and his wife Jane McIlwraith, née Wallace. He arrived in Rockhampton with his family as a young child in 1878. He was the first judge of the Queensland Supreme Court to hold a university degree in law.

| THE HARDING FAMILY | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|---------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                           | 5              | 101            | 30                  |

George Rogers Harding (1868-1940), grazier and Walter Charles Harding (1870-1939), solicitor, were the sons of the Hon. George Rogers Harding, a senior Puisne Judge of the Queensland Supreme Court in the 19th century. George's son, also named George Rogers Harding (1905-1937) and his brother, Christopher Winter Harding (1913-1982) were the founders of Harding Brothers, a wholesale merchandising business at Toowong.

| ATWILL BUXTON KENRICK | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                              | 5              | 71             | 2                   |

Atwill Buxton Kenrick (1863-1922), station manager and grazier, was born in Newcastle NSW the son of Atwill Kenrick and his wife Hannah (née Brookes). In February 1917, Mr. Kenrick married Miss Vans Macartney, the youngest daughter of John Arthur Macartney, of Ormiston House, Ormiston, Brisbane.

| ADOLPH FREDERIC MILFORD FEEZ | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|-------------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                                     | 5              | 68             | 3                   |

Brisbane-born Adolph Feez (1858-1944) was a surveyor for a number of years before studying for the legal profession. He was admitted as a solicitor in December 1885 and commenced practice as a partner in MacPherson, Miskin & Feez. Later he was in partnership with Mr A.F.T. Ruthning. Feez Ruthning & Co operated until 1996.

| JOHN HENRY FLOWER | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|--------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                          | 5              | 68             | 2                   |

John Henry Flower (1852- 1918) was a senior partner in the long established law firm of Flower & Hart. He was born in Port Fairy, Victoria but educated in England where he studied law. In 1886 he married Dora Kirk in Victoria. Their hilltop home at Windsor is now heritage-listed.

| JOHN ARTHUR MACARTNEY | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                              | 5              | 62             | 16                  |

John Arthur Macartney (1834-1917) was the eldest son of the Very Rev Hussey Burgh Macartney, the First Dean of Melbourne and his wife Jane, née Hardman. He studied law but resigned after 18 months to take up his first station property in Victoria. Over time he owned 25 stations and other properties in Qld and NT. He died at his home, Ormiston House near Cleveland.

| EDWARD VINCENT POLLOCK | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|-------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                               | 5              | 62             | 12                  |

Irish-born Edward Vincent Pollock (1851-1911) was attached to the Admiralty branch of the British Civil Service. Later he and his wife Elizabeth migrated to Queensland arriving in Mackay in 1884. In 1889 he became Staff Paymaster-in-Charge and Secretary to Senior Naval Officer, Queensland Naval Defence Force and Fleet Paymaster and Secretary to the Naval Commandant of the Commonwealth Naval Force on 2 February 1904.

| RICHARD WILLIAM CURTIS | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|-------------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                               | 5              | 61             | 22                  |

Englishman Richard William Curtis (1840-1905) is one of six proven veterans of the American Civil War buried in Toowong Cemetery. He joined the Confederate States Navy and is recorded as being Assistant Paymaster on the CSS Georgia in 1863 and later Paymaster on CSS Stonewall. After the conclusion of the Civil War he came to Brisbane where he worked for the Government and in private enterprise.

| RICHARD LANGLER DREW | Portion | Section | Grave Number |
|-----------------------------|----------------|----------------|---------------------|
|                             | 5              | 43             | 2                   |

Richard Langler Drew (1823-1869) served with the Royal Navy before migrating from England to Victoria with his wife Ann c 1858. In 1861 they moved to Brisbane where he was appointed shipping master and secretary to the Marine Board. He