

Frederick Augustus Garland	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	24	22

Frederick Augustus (Gus) Garland was the second son of Charles Frederick Augustus and Sarah Jane Garland of New Farm. He was a public servant and prominent in Catholic choirs in Brisbane prior to his death at the age of 38 years.

John Galligan	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	26	12

John Galligan was born in County Cavan, Ireland in 1857. He landed in Sydney in 1873 when he was 16 and later came to Queensland where he joined the police force in 1882. He escaped death a number of times during his police career during his postings in Brisbane and Bundaberg.

Sources

UK, Royal Navy Registers of Seamen's Services, 1853-1928

Trove, Digitised Newspapers and More (2016)

http://www.bbc.co.uk/suffolk/content/articles/2009/08/17/hms\_ganges\_campaign\_lw\_feature.shtml

http://www.battleships-cruisers.co.uk/hms\_impregnable.htm

<http://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/de-vis-charles-walter-3406>

<http://www.actonhistory.co.uk>

www.railwayfirstaidvolunteers.org.au/pdf

railwayfirstaidvolunteers.org.au/pdf

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Frank\_Pearson

<http://bushrangersau.blogspot.com.au/2011/02/captain-starlight.html>

<https://www.police.qld.gov.au/aboutus/facilities/museum/>

A Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc

Guided Heritage Walk

A Wander Through Portions 15 & 16

Chief P.O. Instructor Alexander Mountford	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	16	18	30

Mountford was born in North Leith, Scotland on 10 February 1898. After a long career in the British Navy, he was transferred to the Royal Australian Navy in 1927. In May 1934 he was appointed instructor in wireless telegraphy at Brisbane. He died in Rosemount Repatriation Hospital on 15 September 1936 following a short illness.

Charles Walter de Vis	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	16	22	18

Born in Birmingham England on 9 May 1829, de Vis was a clergyman and then museum curator before immigrating to Queensland in 1870. He became curator of the Queensland Museum in 1882 and director of that institution in 1901 adding much to the extent of the collections, their classification and display.

Olive May Heathorn	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	16	24	14

Olive was born in Great Malvern Worcester in 1890. During World War 1 she married 2nd Lieutenant George Douglas Heathorn of the Royal Flying Corp. After the war George and Olive became dairy farmers at Woolner's Arm outside of Casino in NSW. Olive died in a Brisbane hospital on 7 June 1936.

Charles Frederick Augustus Garland	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	11	26/27

Born in Roma Qld in 1862, Charles Garland was apprenticed a printer's devil to the proprietor of the Western Star and Roma Advertiser. He later obtained a position on the composing staff of the Brisbane Courier where he served for 52 years.

Richard Belford	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	11	6

Richard Belford died on 28 April 1865 and was interred in the North Brisbane Burial Ground at Paddington before his remains and headstone were transferred to Toowong in 1913. Richard was for many years connected with the colonial press in New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland.

James Edwin Ramsbotham	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	16	17

James Ramsbotham was born on 4 November 1856 in Ipswich Qld where his parents were wellknown residents. He entered the Posts & Telegraphs Service and was stationed at St Lawrence. Later he moved to Brisbane. In 1901 following Federation he was appointed to the position of telegraphist at Roma Street Railway Station.

Toppin Family	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	16	40/41

The Toppin siblings, Jack, Leo and Madonna were wellknown child entertainers during WW1 and afterward. Leo became manager of some wellknown Brisbane theatrical venues in the years leading up to WW2.

Francis Malachy McKeon	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	17	7

Francis McKeon was a member of the Brisbane team of railway staff who competed for, and won, the Queensland Railways Ambulance Challenge Shield in 1920. He died in the Mater Hospital on 17 November 1925 after a few days' illness.

John & Ellen Forde	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	19	27/28

Irish immigrants, John and Ellen Forde were the parents of Francis Michael Forde better known as Frank Forde, the 15th Prime Minister of Australia.

Hugh Glackin	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	22	20/21

Hugh Glackin was born in Newtown Cunningham in County Donegal on 8 March 1844. After coming to Queensland, he joined the police force as a constable in 1870 and famously arrested Captain Starlight in April 1887.

Burton Family	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	22	11/12

The Burton family were hoteliers, operating some of Brisbane's landmark hotels in the 19th and 20th centuries.